

13 more images >

When Will Hotels Reopen? Everything You Need to Know

20 JULY 2020 BY OLIVIA MICHEL

Want to know when you can stay in a hotel again? Read our coronavirus hotel updates guide for the latest news and advice on when luxury hotels will reopen to tourists.

When Will Hotels Reopen?

Many countries have now reopened hotels alongside other public venues like restaurants, spas, cinemas and shopping centres. However, while some opened immediately after travel restrictions were lifted, others are still closed for now as a result of each country's phased approach. Below we list the latest information about which hotels are open for business and where you'll be able to stay later this summer.

The yachting hub of Florida has seen a varied approach to lockdown. Image courtesy of Amber Kipp/Unsplash.

RELATED ARTICLES

The Luxury Hotels Helping their Communities Fight Through Coronavirus

The Best Virtual Travel Experiences to Enjoy Now

Boat International Online (UMV 588, 780; Points 14) 20th July 2020 When will Hotels Reopen?

(IMAGE 1 OF 4)

Ardara Manor in Ireland will reopen on July 30.

When Will Hotels Open Back Up in Europe?

Almost all European countries have now reopened hotels to travellers, with a few exceptions. Greece, for example, announced the reopening of hotels and Airbnbs as of June 15, but UK tourists are still barred from entering the country until July 15. Cyprus began reopening hotels including the Anassa resort, on June 9 but this process will not be complete until July 13.

Italy has allowed some luxury hotels to reopen, but a report by the Italian hoteliers' association, Federalberghi, found that only 40 percent of Italian hotels are currently open and over 20 percent are expected to be closed until August.

Puglia's Paragon 700 is a brand new boutique hotel which has flung its doors open for the first time.

Which Countries Have Already Reopened Hotels?

Alongside shops, markets and restaurants, Switzerland has already opened some of its hotels, including Grand Resort Bad Ragaz on May 11 and Suvretta House in St Moritz on July 10. On June 2, travel restrictions were eased across neighbouring France, allowing hotels to also begin reopening as of this date.

Montenegro started reopening its hotels back in May seaside resorts including The Chedi Luštica Bay are now open for business again. As of May 11, some hotels in Spain have also started to reopen and on June 8, hotels in the Canary Islands were allowed to reopen too.

At the end of May, approximately 133 hotels were reopened in Croatia, with social-distancing measures in place. Adriatic Luxury Hotels (ALH), a group that owns a number of the country's best resorts, has stated more specifically on its website that the Hotel Dubrovnik Palace is now open for business and visitors are allowed on the outdoor terrace of Hotel Kompas.

Boat International Online (UMV 588, 780; Points 14) 20th July 2020 When will Hotels Reopen?

(IMAGE 2 OF 4)

Anse Chastanet resort in St Lucia reopened on July 1.

On June 4, St Lucia opened 1,500 hotel rooms in resorts across the nation. This included Anse Chastanet resort on July 1.

From May 27, Turkey began reopening its hotels, including the Hillside Beach Club in Fethiye and the two Four Seasons resorts in Istanbul. Face masks are still mandatory in all public areas, though.

In Portugal, the Algarve tourist board has also said that it is ready to reopen to tourists. Many hotels, including Quinta do Lago resort and Six Senses Douro Valley, are already back in business.

In Scandinavia, Norway has now reopened some of its hotels, including the historic Hotel Union Øye in Norangsfjorden. Sweden never went into full lockdown so most hotels have remained open throughout the pandemic. Further north, Iceland has also reopened a number of hotels including the luxury mountain resort Deplar Farm.

The Grand Resort Bad Ragaz hotel in Switzerland was reopened on May 11.

Which Luxury Hotels Can I Stay at Now?

In Italy, Amalfi Coast hotel Monastero Santa Rosa reopened on July 10 and Palazzo Avino in Ravello reopened July 15. They are the latest additions in a series of openings which included Rome's Rocco Forte House, the Palazzo Cristo and Grand Hotel Dei Dogi in Venice, The Mandarin Oriental and Villa d'Este hotels on Lake Como and Puglia's Paragon 700 boutique hotel.

A number of hotels in Monaco are now officially open for business this summer, including the key players: Hotel de Paris Monte-Carlo, Hotel Hermitage Monte-Carlo, the Port Palace and the Hotel Metropole Monte-Carlo.

In France, hotels now open for business include Fauchon L'Hôtel Paris, L'Hôtel de Toiras in Ile de Re, Hôtel Chais Monnet in Cognac, Hôtel Crillon Le Brave and Terre Blanche in Provence, Hôtel du Cap-Eden-Roc in Antibes, Royal Champagne Hotel & Spa, and St Tropez hotels Villa Marie, Hôtel Lou Pinet and Cheval Blanc.

Boat International Online (UMV 588, 780; Points 14) 20th July 2020 When will Hotels Reopen?

(IMAGE 3 OF 4)

Which Luxury Hotels Can I Stay at Now?

In Italy, Amalfi Coast hotel Monastero Santa Rosa reopened on July 10 and Palazzo Avino in Ravello reopened July 15. They are the latest additions in a series of openings which included Rome's Rocco Forte House, the Palazzo Cristo and Grand Hotel Dei Dogi in Venice, The Mandarin Oriental and Villa d'Este hotels on Lake Como and Puglia's Paragon 700 boutique hotel.

Boat International Online
(UMV 588, 780; Points 14)
20th July 2020 When will Hotels Reopen?

(IMAGE 4 OF 4)